

How to take an idea and learn how to effectively develop it within a team.

Ask good questions and take the time needed to make sure that everyone understand.

I do not know much about scrum but am curious to learn more!

I think I can contribute with programming skills but also skills regarding how to structure the work process.